the 26 stories in this book are both amusing and suspenseful remember the five minute fiction section in women's mags of old in this anthology by Australian writer Samantha Fase you will be transported back to the days of enjoying a quick laugh or cry as she takes you through a range of emotions from humour to sadness romance to reflection Samantha's subject matter is as diverse as teething dementia gluttony and blind dates there's even a couple for the kids whether it's over a coffee or a chardy this collection of unabashed chick lit is sure to appeal

Monkey Tales and Other Short Stories is a collection of 14 short stories based on the author's life growing up in East Africa his global travels experiences working in Canada and abroad and more Hirji deftly blurs the boundaries between memoir and fiction creating vivid characters such as Aziz who stars prominently in many stories along with nefarious biker and monkey gangs a gruesome toilet cleaner a beautiful haunted spirit endearing old women sexy girlfriends nudes and others who leap off the pages in their larger stories come to life with Hirji's vivid prose you can practically smell the puri bubbling in oil and feel the victim's terror when he takes on an unlikely intruder in a riotous showdown although Monkey Tales teases out humour and suspense in its stories there's plenty of poignancy in the collection too whether facing financial hardship or racial bias the characters demonstrate resilience and good nature as they struggle for survival between both humankind and the animal kingdom this book
